Dedication

Mrs. Joyce Robinson

In Deep Appreciation

Because you have helped us to better understand the history of our nation and our world, because you have done much to promote and rejuvenate school spirit, and because you have successfully bridged the teacher-student gap by respecting your students, which in turn, deeply respect you, we dedicate this yearbook to you, Mrs. Robinson.

Administration

Mr. Ralph Dorsey

Dear Seniors.

The completion of the first stage of your preparation for a full and useful life has now been accomplished.

I congratulate you on the interest and the perseverance that made this graduation possible. It is my hope that you will continue your education through every resource at your command. The need for more and more education is an increasing necessity for one who hoped to compete successfully in a technical age.

It has been a pleasure having been associated with you through your graduation. I feel sure this school will continue to feel proud of you as you make progress along life's path I shall continue to watch your achievements with interest.

Sincerely,

Ralph Dorsey
Superintendent

Rhonda Seabolt Crowned Homecoming Queen

Queen Rhonda Seabolt is crowned by Co-captains Donnie Donselman and Wayne Hughes after receiving the traditional roses from the 1968 Queen, Miss Mineva Burd.

Homecoming Week 1969 began on Monday, September 29 as each class busily began preparing its float. With the excitement of the parade come the disapponitment of the rained-out bonfire. Homecoming week was climaxed Friday night, October 3, as the lovely Miss Rhonda Seabolt was crowned Homecoming Queen. Another highlight of the evening was the announcement of the well-deserving Juniors as winners in the float contest. The game against Greenburg ended in a 36-8 victory for the Colonels, setting the pace for the dance which followed the game.

"Some Enchanted

The 1970 Junior-Senior prom was held April 10 at the Holiday Inn in Cave City. The theme for the evening was "Some Enchanted Evening" and the colors were blue and silver. The entire junior class put in many long hours to make the prom an enchanted night to remember.

The 1969 Prom Queen, Linda Hunt, was on hand to present the new queen with the traditional roses. Pictured above are Linda and her husband, Mr. Chris Hunt.

Evening" — April 10, 1970

Sarah Gentry was selected by the junior class as the 1970 Prom Queen. The coronation took place mid way through the prom, at which time the five candidates were presented. Sarah's escort for the evening was Steve Neville.

The 1970 Prom Court included: Janet Tucker, escorted by Jackie Minor; Marcia Chaney, escorted by Kerry Nunn; Ellen Bale, escorted by Kelly Curd, and Rebecca Hatcher, escorted by James Proffitt.

This page marks the end of the 1970 Colonel and the end of an era for the seniors. Pictures and copy can not begin to record the many things experienced by each of us at Caverna. For that we must rely upon our memories and this yearbook, at best, can only help us remember.

Our thanks to all the people who contributed to the production of the 1970 Colonel.

Sincerely,

Janie Ross and Patricia Reynolds
